

Central States Arabian Horse Association

Membership Information and Application

Membership applications may be accessed from the Central States Arabian Horse Association Membership Director or President, downloaded from the web site at www.centralstatesaha.com or join online via the AHA website at www.arabianhorses.org and select “Central States AHA” from the club list. Membership is valid for one year. A 3-year membership is also available.

Membership Qualifications:

Any person who is not on the current suspension list of the United States Equestrian Federation (USEF), Arabian Horse Association (AHA), any other breed registry, or has not been convicted of animal abuse or neglect, and is interested in promoting or engaging in the objectives of the Central States Arabian Horse Association, shall be eligible for membership upon completion of a Central States Arabian Horse Association or AHA Membership Application and payment of annual dues in the amount of $20 for Senior (Adult) memberships and at no fee for Junior (Youth) memberships. Ownership of a horse is not a requirement for membership.

Termination of membership will be sought for any member who deliberately and knowingly provides false or misleading information on any Central States Arabian Horse Association forms, registrations or other written documents. Membership may be terminated by a two-thirds majority vote of the membership present at a scheduled meeting.

Types of memberships:

Affiliate Senior Member - an individual 18 years of age or older, as determined by the rules of AHA. An Affiliate Senior Member is entitled to one vote at elections of Central States Arabian Horse Association and membership in the Arabian Horse Association.

Associate Senior Member - a person 18 years of age and over, as determined by the rules of AHA. An Associate Senior Member is not entitled to membership in the Arabian Horse Association and is not entitled to vote on any business brought before Central States Arabian Horse Association that involves AHA, unless such person is a member of AHA directly or a member of AHA through another club. An Associate Senior Member is entitled to one vote on all other business and has other rights and privileges the same as Affiliate Members except may not hold a club officer position or be a delegate for the club.

Affiliate Junior Member - a person who is less than 18 years old as determined by the rules of AHA. An Affiliate Junior member is a Junior member of the Arabian Horse Association, has all rights and privileges of a Senior Member except a Junior Member shall not be entitled to vote or hold office.

Associate Junior Member - a person who is less than 18 years old as determined by the rules of AHA. An Associate Junior Member will not be entitled to membership in the Arabian Horse Association but shall have all other rights and privileges of a Junior Member.
